

SAVE THE DATE

Campus and Community Sustainability: Sharing Best Practices and Visions for Florida's Future.

October 25-26, 2006
University of Florida, Gainesville
www.sustainability.ufl.edu

"The starting point for a better world is the belief that it is possible." ~Norman Cousins

Mark your calendar to attend this two-day statewide conference. The conference will provide a venue for the exchange of best practices and visions among Florida's universities, colleges, and communities. The conference will focus on establishing stronger relationships between institutions and their communities, and emphasize the role of higher education in creating a more sustainable future.

Day - 1: Campus as a Living Laboratory

Open dialogue among Florida's public and private institutions on issues such as campus sustainability research, education and operations

Day - 2: Practical Solutions for Life

Roundtables on campus/community relations, and the integration of campus/community sustainability programs

Who Should Attend:

- Faculty and students of Florida's academic institutions
- Community leaders
- Planning and development staff
- Florida citizens interested in developing stronger, local sustainability initiatives

Where:

The conference will be held at the J. Wayne Reitz Union at the University of Florida in Gainesville. For a campus map visit: <http://campusmap.ufl.edu>

When:

Wednesday and Thursday, October 25 and 26, 2006.

For more information, exhibition and sponsorship opportunities, or to reply to our call for content, visit our website: www.sustainability.ufl.edu or call: Dedee DeLongpre, 352-392-7581.

Join our mailing list to receive updated conference information: www.sustainability.ufl.edu